WHERE CHILDREN MAY ROMP.

PARK BOARD WILL PROVIDE SEVERAL SMALL PLAY GROUNDS.

They Will Be Made Into Handsome Breathing Spots-It Is Proposed to tilve the Little Ones Attention First-Other Improvements.

Now that the people of Kansas City bave said in unmistakable language that they want parks, the board of park commissioners will speedly get to work to provide them. In the beginning, the board, be-Heving that that portion of the populace which most needs parks, is that portion too poor to pay for the privilege of riding to the suburbs, will direct its energies to the condemnation and improvement of the playgrounds or small breathing spots. Under the plan adopted by the retiring board five such small tracts were reserved, all located in thekir populated district. all located in thickly populated districts, at points where they will afford the children of all classes the greatest benefit. It is the purpose of the park board to carry out these plains as rapidly as possible, and possibly to add to the reservations already selected. That the bailes may get the fresh air and roll in the sense at the carry are the carry at the carry at the carry and roll in the sense at the carry at the c

Then for the South side we have selected what we call 'Holmes Square,' for the good of the thickly settled region out on Eighteenth and Nineteenth streets. This will take in the whole block between Campbell, Holmes, Eighteenth and Nineteenth streets, Like all the others, this one will be improved for the sole use and recreation of the people of the vicinity. It will prove of inestimable advantage from all points of view to the children and adults there, who lack any such place now.

All monkeys are funny, but a funny monkey, a clown monkey, is very funny. That's what Professor Gentry has in his show, which opens for a week's run at Washington park Sunday. In addition to this clown monkey, Professor Gentry has five monkeys that are as grave and dignined as a supreme court indge. They do some things that will tekke all the boys and girls of Kansas City immensely.

But these monkeys are but a small part of Gentry's show, the has sixty does and But these monkeys are but a small part of Gentry's show. He has sixty dogs and swenty ponies, too. They are all Shetland ponies, save "Eureka" and "Dottie Dimple," which are East India "horses," the only two of the kind in the country. The dogs comprise every species from the Russian poolie to the Indiana cur, but they are smart. The backward somersault, the lame dogs, the clown dogs, the leaping of the troup of greyhounds, and above all, the track of "Omaha" and "Major" and the remarkable acting of "Colonel" are very fine. The pony drill is superb, as is also the mischlef making of "The Tough" and the tecterboard work. The living pyramid of dogs and ponies is also a novelty. This is one attraction for next week. Another is the Nelson sisters in flying trapeze acts.

At Troost park the Sisters Mendoza will set your hair on end and Harding and Ah Sid will make you laugh. These clever follows do an act in a Chinese laundry which is said to be very funny.

"While boulevaries and the beautifying of the unsightly west bloffs are two things of great value to the whole city," said fresident A. R. Meyer yesterday, "there are other considerations of still greater importance. It has seemed to the beard that the people voted for some places where their little ones can get out and play as well as for extensive parks and bandsome driveways. With this in view, the board has decided to take up the matter of providing small, centrally located parks for the people who camout affird his view, in fact, any hisside, if money must be used to get to them. It is for their benefit that such a large vote was and needs first.

He is charged with using empty bottles bearing the registered trade mark of P. Setzler & Son without the permission of the latter firm. The bottles alleged to have been used by Breuzs were, it is claimed, secured from second-hand dealers. The bottles bear a registered trade mark blown in the glass, which reads. "Twin Springs Bottling Works." This is the first arrest made in this city under the statute protecting bottles bearing trade marks. P. Setzler & Son filed a description of the mark on their bottles with the recorder of deeds many years ago. The offense is punishable by a stated fine. The fine imposed is 50 cents for each bottle.

Breuss entered a plea of not guifty when arraigned before Justice Walls, and gave bond in the sum of $299 for his appearance for trial on June 14.

It is also true that charity begins at home, and the little folks should be cared for first. Give us a healthy lot of romping youngsters in the homes of the workingmen, with plenty of good, pure air and playrounds set apart for them especially, close enough to their homes to be reached by walking, and you give us a people who will not leave the city under any wrotext. We want to see the city grow, and this is one of the best ways to make it certain."

Only Six Passed Examination.

Professor R. A. Minckwitz, who had clarge of the last teachers' examination for the city, yesterday made known the number of the candidates passing the examination. The names of the candidates are: Lillian Curd, Jessie Wilson, Furania Miligan, Adriana Liepsauer, G. I. Harvey and Hattie Averill. Only six passed the examination out of the entire sixty-nine taking it. Two teachers now in the city schools completed a former examination. One teacher from outside the city passed the examination, but does not wish her name published. Professor Minckwitz said there were more unprepared candidates at this examination than there had ever been at any former examination. Some only made 1 per cent in civil government, and others made 0 in arithmetic. Some only made 5½ per cent in all the studies, the test being on an entirely fair set of questions.
